FOREWORD

As the present school year has advanced, students have witnessed the kaleido-scopic changes wrought by the enlarging and remodeling of The Medina Senior High School. The present diversified and expanded building is indeed a far cry from the original, small, red brick high school structure of 1897.

There were also many events and developments which made this year one to be long remembered. This MEDINIAN Staff has attempted to capture a few of these memorable moments of defeats and victories, of tears and laughter, and of purpose and study.

Therefore, it is the hope of The Staff that this record of the year's "Changing Times" will serve as a lasting memento of student life at Medina Senior High School in 1964-1965.

Mr. Corl Edwards, our longtime annual adviser and friend, was claimed by death on December 12, 1964.

An educator for many years, he was an administrator, department head, and faithful supporter of all professional activities.

This volume of the MEDINIAN was to have been dedicated to him. This he never knew. Thus, the dedication becomes a memorial to Mr. Corl Edwards.

Medina High 1897

The Officers of the Senior Class, Patty Herman, Secretary; Tom Buchanan, Treasurer; Rog Smalley, Vice President; and Dick Cromwell, President; show the spirit set by the class to make the "live hive in 65".

The Senior Class of 1965 has been one of the most outstanding classes yet to enter the halls of MHS. The seniors have proved to be leaders in academics, citizenship, and athletics. Through participation in various functions and organizations, they have helped to make this school year a huge success.

During their sophomore year, the seniors fulfilled the traditional task of choosing class rings. As juniors they were in charge of the concession stand, with Mr. Stirm as advisor. All proceeds went toward the success of their prom, "Lollipops and Roses" held May 2, 1964, at the Wedgewood Country Club. Before the opening of the '64 football season, the seniors contributed the "MHS" which is located on the south slope of the stadium.

As a result of the efforts, enthusiasm and interest of the senior class, this has truly been "a live hive in '65"!

Sue Rapp, President; Barb Brown, Secretary; Gordy Henke, Vice President; Virg Salmons, Treasurer.

The Junior Class eagerly took over the responsibility of working in the concession stand under Mr. Schock's supervision. They also sold mums for Homecoming using the profits of both for a successful prom. Christmastime was made merrier for a needy family adopted by the Junior Class. Class members donated clothes, toys, gifts, canned goods and wishes for a prosperous new year.

Some pupils say that their junior year was their best. This year was full of fun and activities, and juniors hope their senior year can be the same.

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores spent the major part of their year getting acquainted in the halls of M.H.S., and anticipating their junior year when they no longer can be called "tenth graders". Traditionally, sophomores chose their class rings and are anxiously waiting to receive them.

The Class of '67 finished the school year in the flurry of final exams with one main thought, "one down and two to go."

Mr. Merle Leggett, who taught a class of woodworking in the senior high school, was the second faculty member claimed by death during the school year.

As Mr. Leggett was principal during our junior high school days, the Class of 1965 was deeply saddened by his passing on February 8 of this year.

Our hero.

I should have stayed with speech.

And today class, we'll learn how to tear out windows.

Then if I can get George down to 120, I could show him who's boss.

Away, into the wild blue yonder.

If I stand near the door, I could trip someone and practice my first aid.

Varsity Cheerleaders

The comely lasses pictured here enthusiastically led the student body in their vigorous hurrahs for the Battling Bees at all sports events. Besides preparing skits and novelty cheers for pep meetings, the girls also decorated the halls to spark spirit for upcoming athletic events. Last summer Cindy, Judy, and Pat Herman attended cheerleading camp and received superior ratings for their cheerleading abilities.

The 3-6 record posted by the Battling Bees during the past football season can be partially attributed to the lack in size of the line and inexperience in the backfield.

Three of the games ended with defeats of only one touchdown which could have meant that with a win, the record could have been reversed.

Nineteen seniors led the team in scoring 124 points to 178 for their opponents.

Mr. Tibbits looks on the bright side as he informs Dick Cromwell: "Just because they're ahead 48-0 doesn't mean they'll win."

I wonder if that head is as hard as it looks?

Some jockeys have a difficult time playing football.

Competition in the Southwestern Conference became keener with suburban Cleveland schools, and the Battling Bees, under the tutelage of their new coach, Mr. Robert Peters, completed the season with a 9-9 record. The squad was composed of four seniors and seven juniors. Jerry Thompson, senior transferee, broke the school scoring record by swishing 40 points through the nets during the game at Fairview.

After winning the preliminary game with Norton, the Bees lost to Cloverleaf in the Cloverleaf Sectional to close the 1964-65 season.

Junior Varsity Football

The 1964 Junior Varsity football squad showed a great deal of promise. The addition of these players to the Varsity team should make next year's season very successful. They were a spirited team, and although they had only a 3-3 record, they out-scored their opponents 104 to 62.

COACH TIBBITS
Praying for a successful season.

"My head never used to bend that way."

This hold is called the half moon.

"Go away boy-you bother me."

This year the varsity wrestling team posted its most successful season since its origin. With a 7-3 record they came in second in the Medina Invitational, Southwestern Conference and Berea Sectional Tournaments, missing first place in the Conference Tournament by only 2 points. Clayton Hale and George Oliver proved to be the team's most outstanding wrestlers as they won first places in the Conference, Sectional, and District Tournaments. In spite of a gallant effort, both bowed in the second round of state competition.

Now if you'll cooperate fellow, we'll roll across the floor.

The Concert Choir, composed of 86 singers, and featured two mixed ensembles and one girl's ensemble. The ensembles represented the choir at the District Solo and Ensemble Contest. The choir appeared at the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter Assemblies at the high school. Their public appearances included the annual Christmas Vespers Concert, April Spring Concert, May High School Music Festival, and the Baccalareaute services in June.

Choir music was selected to give the singers the widest possible range of musical styles and schools of choral composition. Bach's "Sleepers Awake", and "O Sacred Head Now Wounded", Gibbon's "The Silver Swan", Handel's "And the Glory of the Lord" and "Hallelujah Chorus" were some of the classical selections used. Rubbra's modern setting of the Hastings poem, "Eternitie", was a feature of the 20th century selection of composition for lighter numbers. The choir performed the music from "West Side Story".

Girls Leaders Club

Girls' Athletic Association promotes better sportsmanship and a deeper interest in athletic skills and events. Most exciting of its projects is the Intramural Basketball League which consists of eight teams. Most players survived the season despite minor injuries from tumbles, scratching and hairpulling, and agree that it was a lot of fun! G.A.A. also held several pot luck dinners and playdays throughout the year.

Pep Club

Pep Club is a "girls only" organization whose purpose is to boost school spirit and morale of the student body. This year Pep Club members all helped in creating the Queen's float for homecoming festivities. Card Section members added zip to their appearance by wearing new green felt derbies which were used in various cheer routines. For the final pep rally of the year, Pep Club staged two skits. The "hive" really buzzed this school year due to the efforts and support of the Pep Club, and the Medinian congratulates them in doing so!

Closing Remarks

When we selected "Changing Times" as the theme for our 1965 edition of the MEDINIAN, we could not foresee just how appropriate it would be. Upon becoming seniors, we found various changes evolving in our attitudes, in our ways of thinking, changes which enable us to better separate the important from the unimportant.

Moreover, with building construction going on all around us, physical changes also have been made from day to day, period to period, in our normally routine school lives.

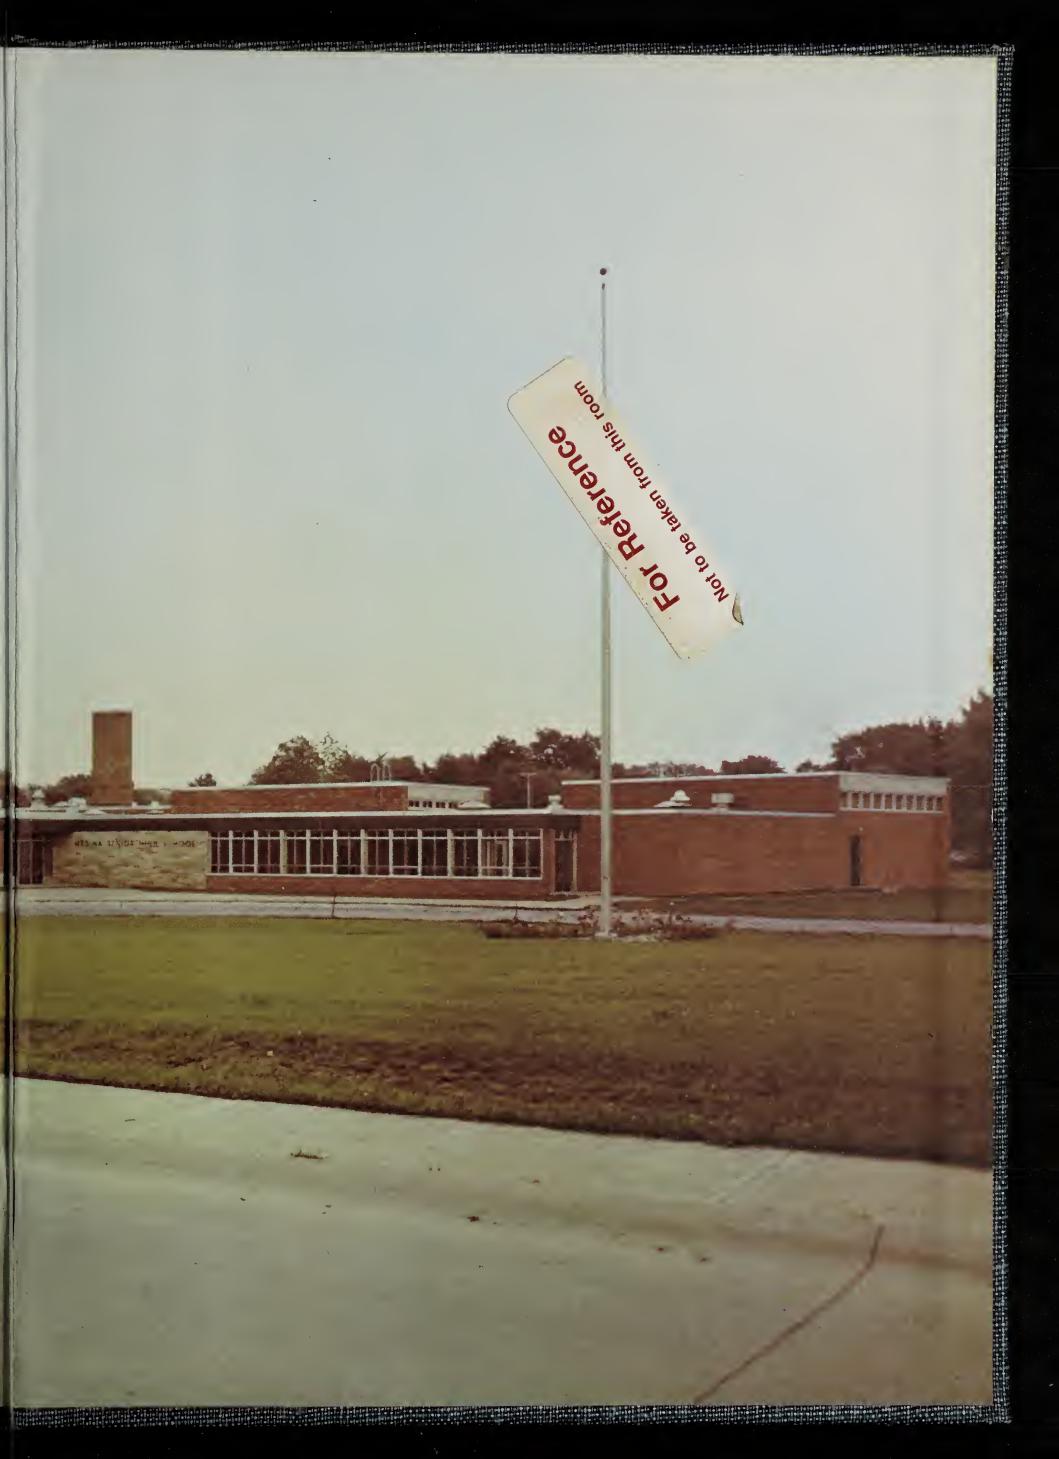

The school has changed, we ourselves have changed, for these are indeed "Changing Times".

The Staff of this MEDINIAN sincerely hopes that the students of Medina High School will find this volume suitable for a permanent memento of their "Changing Times" of 1964-1965.
